

Top 5 best performing football teams 17/18 season

1. Manchester City

Man City broke the Premier League record with 18 wins in a row before their incredible, no doubt title-winning run, was ended by Liverpool. They are top of the league by 13 points.

2. Barcelona

The Spanish giants are rocking La Liga this season, they are top of the league and have recently signed Philippe Coutinho. Surely they will win the league a ninth time this year!

3. PSG

One of the richest clubs in the world, they have an excellent team and that means that they almost certainly will win the league. At least that is how it's looking...They have won the league 6 times in their long history.

4. Bayern Munich

The German giants never play badly, or so it seems. With a great goalkeeper, defence and especially attack, they are expected to win the league, just like they have won the title 9 times out of the last 13.

5. Manchester Utd

Although they aren't top of the league, they have only lost 4 games out of 25, and especially with the latest signing of Alexis Sanchez, I don't think they will lose many more. They have won the Premier League a whopping 13 times and they will be looking to add to that next season.

- Newcastle United...

Now, let's talk about my team, Newcastle United. They may not be great now, but we used to be one of the greatest teams in England with legends like Shearer, Beardsley, Sol Campbell and Michael Owen all starring for the Magpies for varying lengths of time. Not that long ago, in 2012/13 season, we finished fifth qualifying for the Europa League. We were knocked out in the Quarter Final by Benfica and it's been downhill since then. We are currently sitting 15th in the Premier League with 24 points but let's hope this is a platform from which we can challenge those big names listed above in seasons to come!
